Duke Caribbean: Life's A Beach

Thank you for purchasing Duke Caribbean: Life's A Beach for DUKE NUKEM 3D™! This manual will guide you through the installation process of the Duke Caribbean: Life's A Beach add-on pack and the GAMER (Game Add-on Manager) program.

The Duke Caribbean: Life's a Beach add-on pack will temporarily replace Episode 3 in Duke Nukem 3D. The Caribbean DeathMatch maps are accessible through Episode 2 in Duke Nukem 3D.

Minimum Requirements

- Registered and installed version of Duke Nukem 3D. (Please note that the Duke Caribbean: Life's A Beach add-on is only tested and designed for Duke Nukem 3D version 1.3, 1.4 and 1.5. Any other updates made to Duke Nukem 3D after the release of these are not tested or supported.)
- Pentium™ 75MHz or compatible
- 8MB RAM, 16MB if running under Windows® 95
- DOS 5.0 or later
- 2X CD-ROM drive, Sound Blaster™ or 100% compatible, VGA local bus video
- 45 MB free hard disk space

Installation Instructions

The Install will set up GAMER - the interface that activates and deactivates your Duke Caribbean: Life's A Beach add-on.

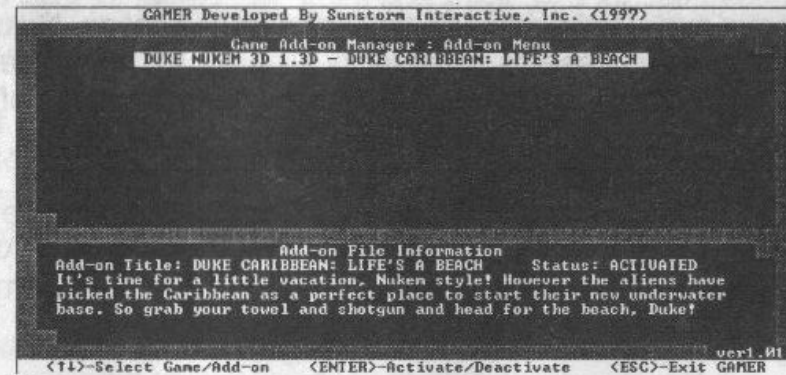

- 1 With your Duke Caribbean: Life's A Beach CD in your drive, go to the DOS-Prompt and change to your CD drive. (If it is D type D: and press Enter.)
- 2 Type INSTALL and press Enter.
- 3 Follow the on screen instructions.
- 4 You must now designate where you would like GAMER to be installed. Include the full pathway. (Note: we recommend C:\GAMER - The directory GAMER will be created, but any other directory you choose to place it in must already exist.) Choose YES.
- 5 You must tell Install where your Duke Nukem 3D directory is. Include the full pathway. The default location for Duke Nukem 3D is C:\DUKE3D, the location might be different for you. Enter the location in the space provide and choose YES.

After Install is completed, you will be returned to the DOS-Prompt in the GAMER directory you chose. Type GAMER to continue. If you are running the Duke Nukem 3D Kill-A-Ton Collection the default directory for Duke Nukem is C:\Killaton\Duke3d or C:\Killaton\Atomic.

Note: If you have a previous copy of GAMER installed, and the install locks up your machine, reboot and install to a different directory name. See the README.TXT file on the CD for the latest troubleshooting information.

How to Use GAMER

GAMER is the interface which activates and deactivates your Duke Caribbean: Life's A Beach add-on. To start GAMER, go to the DOS-Prompt. Change to the directory where you installed GAMER. (If you installed it to C:\GAMER type CD\GAMER and press Enter.) You will see the following screen:

Press Enter to Activate Duke Caribbean: Life's A Beach. You will be prompted to play now, or press Esc to exit. Start Duke Nukem 3D normally and chose the Duke Caribbean: Life's A Beach episode.

To deactivate Duke Caribbean: Life's A Beach go through the same steps again. Once you have activated Duke Caribbean: Life's A Beach, you only need to type CARIB while in your Duke Nukem 3D directory, to play.

Duke Caribbean: Life's a Beach – The Story

Raiding moonbases, wiping out armies of Pigcops, and slaughtering alien queens can take its toll on a guy, even a tough guy like Duke Nukem! After liberating L.A. and giving the alien hordes a whipping they won't soon forget, our hero Duke decides it's time to take it easy for awhile, put his feet up, and soak up some rays under the hot Caribbean sun. That's right, it's time for a little vacation, Nukem style! Unfortunately, it seems some lucky aliens collected a little too many frequent flyer miles! They have decided the hot climate of the Caribbean is the perfect place to set up a new breeding ground, and begin slaughtering the hapless tourists in the area, laying eggs everywhere! When Duke arrives and assesses the situation, he decides it's time to put on the hurt, and this time it's personal! After all, they did interrupt his vacation, so he's really gonna make 'em pay! Duke grabs his towel, sun lotion, and heads for the beach!

Caribbean Catastrophe - Begin your fabulous Caribbean vacation here at the Sunny Beach Resort! Soak up some rays and then boogie the night away at the fabulous rotating hotel disco!

Market Melee - The Pig Cops have thrown our hero Duke into the nearest third world prison cell! It's up to Duke to break out and make 'em pay....while getting some summer gift shopping done on the side!

Mr. Splashy's - What better place to have a blast than Mr. Splashy's Super Happy Fun Park? It seems the bad guys have reserved the park for their own use, so it's time for a little line jumping Nukem style! But we warn you, you may get wet!

The Wavemistress - What would a trip to the Caribbean be without a little ocean cruise? Hop aboard the Wavemistress for a rowdy good time on the waves, but it looks like your cruise director is a Pig Cop!

Lost Lagoon - Duke makes it a habit to never go south of the border without fitting in some good old-fashioned jungle adventuring. Pack your backpack and head deep into the bush for an adventure you won't forget. But remember the jungle doesn't give up its secrets easily.

Voodoo Caves - Getting back to civilization wasn't as easy as Duke thought! It's time to find out if all those rumor about voodoo tribes were true. However, with all the aliens about, having a pin stuck in your body may be the least of your worries!

The Alien Remains - What dark, sinister new base have the aliens constructed in this sunny paradise? What evil now lurks beneath the calm waves of this tranquil eden? Let's just say it's so mind numbingly awful you'll just have to find out for yourself.

Secret Level - You'll have to find it!

Dukematch Levels

As a special bonus, also included and installed with your copy of Duke Caribbean: Life's A Beach are four all new Duke Nukem 3D deathmatch only levels! These are in your Duke Nukem 3D directory as files: vacadm1, vacadm2, vacadm3 and vacadm4.

New Enemies

All of the Duke Nukem 3D Monsters have been outfitted in vacation attire. In addition to the newly dressed monsters you can also run into sunbathers and a couple of new monsters as well.

Inflatable Sea Monster - Watch out for this happy-go-lucky sea creature who is really just full of hot air! But be careful, he can pack a punch as he merrily bounces along his way.

Seagull - Not so much a monster as an annoyance. Although nothing adds ambience to a day at the beach like the relaxing sound of seagulls, just try to stay out from underneath them!

New Weapons

Without his trusty arsenal of weapons, Duke Nukem has to make due with the Caribbean equivalents.

- |                         |  |
|-------------------------|--|
| Sandal Foot      | - Just like the mighty foot only hairier.  |
| Squirt Gun       | - More potent than your average water pistol.  |
| Super Soak'em    | - A slightly more powerful version than the off the shelf model.                           |
| Water Repeater   | - If power doesn't put 'em down, try this baby.  |
| Coconut Launcher | - These coconuts are chalked full of burning goodness.                                     |
| Pineapple Bomb   | - When it's time for one on the house, these pack a fruity punch.                          |
| Voodoo Ring      | - Amazingly this little ring will shrink without wrinkling.                                |
| Conchonator      | - A coconut here, a coconut there, pretty soon you're talking a serious bunch of coconuts. |
| Tiki Trip Mine   | - Nothing ages you quicker than a fine vine.   |
| Ice Crusher      | - Served free of charge.   |

New Items

Banana	- A healthy start to your day (+10 Health).
Banana Bunch	- Rub liberally over your body (+30 Health).
Crate of Bananas	- Take these for a quick pick me up.
Sun Tan Lotion	- SPF 10,000, blocks the sun and then some.
Sun Glasses	- An extra special prescription.
Shiny Pearl	- When a banana just won't due.
Hot Sauce	- Gets the circulation going.
Scuba Gear & Snorkel	- A cheap pair that don't last very long.
Bouncing Beach Ball	- Kick for distance.

Multi-player gaming in Duke Caribbean: Life's A Beach

Duke Caribbean: Life's A Beach includes four Duke Nukem 3D deathmatch levels to put the hurt on a friend or relative.

Choose the multiplayer option from the CARIB.EXE program to play the Duke Caribbean: Life's A Beach levels, this will launch the Duke Nukem setup program. Connect to the other players the same way as you would playing Duke Nukem (consult the information in your Duke Nukem directory to learn more about multiplayer gaming). The second episode, Vacation Dukematch, contains the dukematch levels; Island Hopping, Hidden Grotto, Cruise Ship and The Docks. Remember, each player must have Duke Nukem 3D and Duke Caribbean: Life's A Beach installed and working on their computer.

Troubleshooting

If you experience any problems installing "Duke Caribbean: Life's a Beach", read below for possible solutions and workarounds. See the README.TXT file included on the CD for the latest information.

Q- I can't get the installer to recognize my Duke Nukem 3D directory! What do I do now?

A- First, make sure that Duke Nukem 3D is currently INSTALLED on your computer. Secondly, the installer looks for a .CFG file to verify the existence of Duke Nukem 3D on your computer, and to detect which version of Duke you have. Since you cannot run Duke Nukem without a .CFG file, the installer assumes you will have one.

Q-I can't get the installer to recognize my GAMER directory! What do I do?

A- The installer looks for a file name GAMER.INI to verify the existence of the GAMER software. You can't run the GAMER software without it, so just make sure it is in the directory when installing. If you still cannot get it to work, you will most likely need to install it in a new place.

Q- I keep trying to make a directory to install the GAMER software into, but the installer won't accept it. Why?

-Or-

I can't type enough characters for the directory I want to install the GAMER software into. How do I fix this?

A- The maximum number of characters the installer allows you to type is 60. The Duke Nukem 3D installer allows this, as do many other installers. Secondly, the installer only allows you to create one new subdirectory from the one you are installing. For example:

This is a valid directory to install to:
C:\GAMES\GAMER

This is an invalid directory to install to:
C:\GAMES\ADDONS\GAMER

Unless of course, you already have a directory called ADDONS as a subdirectory of GAMES.

Q- Duke Caribbean crashed while I was playing it! Should this happen, it will leave your Duke Nukem 3D game in an unstable configuration. You may not be able to play Duke until you correct this problem.

A- There is a simple solution to correcting this problem. All you need to do is rerun the 'carib.exe' file. Now you can play the new episode as normal or use GAMER to activate / deactivate the episode.

Q- I get the credits page every time I try to run Duke Caribbean.

A- Make sure you have the Duke Nukem Plutonium or Atomic CD-ROMs in the CD-ROM drive. Duke Nukem Plutonium or Atomic (v1.4 and 1.5) check for the CD.

Technical Support

Before calling for technical support, please try the following:

- ✓ Make sure your system meets the minimum requirements.
- ✓ Look at the bottom of the Duke Caribbean: Life's A Beach CD and make sure there are no scratches or smudges. If there are, contact WizardWorks technical support regarding replacement.
- ✓ If you have problems installing, make sure you are using the correct drive letters and that your CD drive can read other CDs.
- ✓ If the Install freezes half way through installation - reboot, delete or rename the GAMER directory, and try again.
- ✓ For the latest help and additional troubleshooting information consult the README.TXT file on the disk.

Registered users will receive technical support for Duke Caribbean: Life's A Beach. If possible, please be at your computer when calling.
